

Helping Organisations and Individuals get through life more easily

PriorityOne
A Fresh Approach

Jewellery Consultant Criteria

The Priority One Centre has exciting new opportunities for passionate, direct sales oriented people to be jewellery consultants. If you enjoy face to face contact with potential customers, have experience working in a retail or promotional environment, and are looking for new opportunities, this may be the right business for you.

Personal Attributes

You must:

- Be able to work well unsupervised
- Have good eyesight or have corrective eyewear
- Be computer proficient
- Show attention to detail
- Be well groomed
- Able to effectively interact with customers
- Demonstrate superior decision making skills
- Be flexible in availability and hours of work
- Openly receive and act on constructive criticism
- Be willing to partake in ongoing training and skills development
- Be able to multi-task and prioritise effectively

The Priority One Centre is a growing company with opportunities in several states. Our consultants sell fashion jewellery. As a Jewellery Consultant, you would be responsible for promoting and conducting Jewellery Parties and Fund Raising events, including but not limited to the following:

- Engaging prospective Jewellery Party hosts and guests
- Engaging prospective organisations for fund raising activities
- Mastering the processes and procedures supporting the jewellery parties
- Demonstrating professional competence and responsibility in promoting the good name of the Priority One Centre.

Professional Attributes:

- Prior retail of direct sales experience
- Demonstrated commitment and ability to engage customers
- Demonstrated ability to convert prospects into active customers
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Excellent presentation skills
- Proven dependability and reliability